

PNW PAC

CONTRIBUTION CRITERIA

The PNW PAC is non-partisan and supports political candidates and organizations committed to economic development, responsible business policy, sustainability, and good government. Specifically, the following factors are considered before a contribution is made:

The potential recipient's views and/or voting record on issues of importance to the company, our customers, employees, shareholders, and other stakeholders. These issues include, but are not limited to, energy policy, diversified resources including nuclear, economic growth and development, sustainability, and tax policy.

The potential recipient's reputation for integrity, commitment to the rule of law, and alignment with the tenets of the APS Promise.

The status of any pending governmental investigation or substantive accusation about the potential recipient's conduct.

The potential recipient's service on key legislative/governmental committees or leadership/potential leadership positions.
